Punk Rock Ghosts Are Sexy because They Love Kittens

By David Rothfeder

Listen bucko (yeah I said bucko), you're dead. Yeah, it sucks, but that doesn't mean your life is over. You still get to rock the fuck out and look at pictures of cute animals. What else do you fucking need? (I mean sex, booze, drugs, and Anarchy, but kittens are also rad). So roll a fucking d10.

1: You died in 1987 while listening to Boys Don't Cry for the first time

2: You died at CBGB in 1974, cause you're that fucking original

3: You died in 1977 while partying with The Clash

4: You died in 1987 after a shit awful Ramones concert

5: You died in 1997 trying to get tickets to The Sex Pistol's reunion tour

6: You died the night before the International Pop Underground Convention in 1991 and you're still kicking yourself for missing Girl Night

7: You died in 1998 in your car while listening to your favorite Rancid CD

8: You died in 1987 when you got pissed off that The Violent Femmes disbanded (they got back together which is cool)

9: You died in 2008 following AJJ around on the Make Punk Fun Again tour

10: Punk's Not Dead and neither am I

Good. Now pick a fucking punk song, and make sure it's fucking awesome. Don't want to listen to punk; then choose something else. I'm not boss of you. Just make sure that whatever you choose gets you off.

Now let's search for some cute ass critters. Roll for one of each to create your search.

Roll a d6:

1: Cat   3: Rabbit   5: Snake

2: Dog   4: Otter   6: Possum

Roll a d4:

1: wearing   3: playing with

2: eating   4: hiding in

Roll a d6:

1: box   3: fish   5: jacket

2: friend   4: hat   6: costume

Good, now put on your damned song and use your rolls to search for a cute animal. Pick the cutest one before the song ends. Then post it on that Facebook shit or wherever you rock out. Make sure you say what you think of that cute ass shit. Just remember:

- You're fucking hardcore
- You're dead
- You're sexy as hell
- Animals are cute
